

Note: Program and Instructors subject to change

University of Idaho
Extension

Seminars Located in the Department of Agriculture Seminar Tent CANYON COUNTY FAIR BUILDING

Tuesday, January 23th

10:30-12:00

Wheat Diseases and Pest Control–

This presentation will cover agronomic diseases in wheat and how to manage them.

PRESENTER: Dr. Juliet Marshall --Plant Pathologist
University of Idaho

1:00-2:00

Worker Protection Standard changes–

Information concerning the changes in the Worker Protection Standard and the upcoming requirements for the growers and businesses for the coming year.

PRESENTER: Luis Urias, --Program Specialist
Idaho State Department of Agriculture

2:30-3:30

Ground Water and Surface Water Pesticide Sampling Programs and Results–

This presentation will provide information on the ISDA pesticide and water quality sampling program. Pesticides detected will be discussed.

PRESENTER: Curtis Cooper, --Water Quality Specialist
Idaho State Department of Agriculture

4:00-5:00

Effective Pesticide Applications: Measuring Accurately–

This presentation will discuss and demonstrate the importance of precise pesticide measurements and the differences between fluid and weight measurements.

PRESENTER: Ronda Hirnyck, --Pesticide Specialist
University of Idaho

Wednesday, January 24th

11:00-12:00

ISDA Information Updates and Issues–

Information concerning current pesticide regulatory issues and inspections. Hot topics for pesticide related issues. Information on the unusable pesticide disposal program.

PRESENTER: Vic Mason, --Program Manager
Idaho State Department of Agriculture

1:00-2:00

Three Troublesome Weeds–

This presentation will discuss three troublesome weeds in Idaho: puncture vine, field bindweed and foxtail barley. The presentation will discuss their biology, damage they cause and their control.

PRESENTER: Sherman Takatori, --Program Specialist
Idaho State Department of Agriculture